

STEVE JOHNSON

SAMANTHA JENKINS

“My First Choice for My Business Bank”

Steve Johnson, CEO and founder of Coast Video, Inc./VideoBuilder.com, is accustomed to being first at a young age. He started his first business in middle school, and was one of the youngest applicants for an SBA loan. He was the youngest high school student to join the Manhattan Beach Chamber of Commerce and one of the youngest members of the Manhattan Beach Rotary Club.

He is technology-driven, and keenly interested in the cash management options his bank can provide. He also appreciates personal service from bankers who know him by name.

When Steve heard that Samantha Jenkins had joined Beach Business Bank from a previous bank, he asked Sam if her new bank could offer all of the things that are so important in getting his business into first place.

Sam showed him state-of-the-art technology and cash management, combined with the very best personal service that any business bank could offer. Steve was sold on Beach Business Bank, and he opened his checking account at Beach Business Bank the first day that Sam started working there.

“I move fast,” said Steve. “I can call Sam and things happen. I like a bank that is responsive to my needs and is a vital part of our South Bay business community. I would recommend Beach Business Bank and Sam to any entrepreneur in business.”

“I have been serving bank clients in the South Bay since 1999,” said Sam. “It is because of clients like Steve that I love working at Beach Business Bank. We are a true business bank in every sense.”
