

BEACH BUSINESS BANK

“A win-win opportunity”

PATRICK DONAHUE, photographer and graphic designer of more than thirty years, knows a great opportunity when he sees one. When he learned The Sign Shop was for sale in Manhattan Beach, Donahue sold his 22-year-old business in Hollywood and purchased the shop for the opportunity to work in his own neighborhood. Only a year later, Donahue’s sign shop and photography studio, now called Pacific Sign Design, boasts of more than ninety successful business relationships in the South Bay.

Donahue also found opportunity in BEACH BUSINESS BANK. “I enjoy doing business with my friends and neighbors,” Donahue said. “That’s why BEACH BUSINESS BANK caught my attention. Bob Franko, the president of the bank, is a good friend and a running partner in the local Wall-Nuts running group. Sam Jenkins, fellow member of Leadership Manhattan Beach and The Chamber of Commerce, opened my accounts quickly and made the process easy. I love working with folks who are so involved with the South Bay community.”

When BEACH BUSINESS BANK needed a photographer for its weekly advertisements, Donahue again saw a great opportunity. “Every photo shoot with BEACH BUSINESS BANK is a unique experience. I enjoy meeting other clients of the bank, and it’s always fun to visit with those I’m already acquainted with.”

“Our branch hours are 9am to 5pm, Monday through Friday. Even though we offer Image Deposit, courier services, a night drop box, and free ATM withdrawals from virtually anywhere, Patrick still makes time to come in and see us,” Jenkins said. “That says a lot.”
